No. G. 14125—G. M.—479-15-2, dated 10*th April* 1916.

The following copy of an India Army Order regarding the enlistment into the British Army, for the duration of the War, of men of the domiciled Anglo-Indian Community, is hereby republished for general information :—

INDIA ARMY ORDER.

Recruiting—British Army—Enlistments in the Regular Army.—It has been decided that enlistment into the regular British Army will be opened in India to suitable members of the domiciled Anglo-Indian Community who are anxious to serve their country during the continuance of the present war.

Sanctioned in Army Department letter No. H. 1935, dated the 15th March 1916.

Enlistments will be—

(1) For General service (with British troops).

(2) For the duration of the war. At the conclusion of the war men will be discharged with all convenient speed.

(3) After six months' training, if their services are not required in an active capacity, non-commissioned officers and men will be liable to the transferred to the Army Reserve, with further liability to recall to the colours at any time while the war continues should their services be required.

(4) Age 18 to 35 years.

(5) Standards of height, weight and chest measurement as laid down in Recruiting Regulations, Appendix II.

(6) The European parentage qualification, as defined in Army Regulations, India, Volume II, Definitions, as required for enlistment in British units, is waived. The recommendation on the subjoined form of an Officer Commanding, a Volunteer Unit or of the accredited local representative of the Anglo-Indian Empire League or Anglo-Indian Association as to the man's general suitability will be accepted in lieu.

(7) Candidates in Government or Railway employment will only be accepted if they have permission to enlist from their official superiors. They will be entitled to the concessions admissible under India Army Order No. 62, dated 31st January 1916.

(8) The pay, allowances, privileges, pensions and concessions of officers, non-commissioned officers and men will be identical with those of British troops serving in India, with the colours or reserve as the case may be, according to the arm in which they are serving.

(9) Officers will receive an outfit allowance of Rs. 600.

(10) General Officers Commanding Divisions and Areas concerned will, after consultation with the representatives of the Anglo-Indian Empire League and Associations, and Officers Commanding Volunteer Units, submit their recommendations to the Military Secretary to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief of gentlemen recommended for commissions. Preference will be given to those with volunteer experience.

(11) Non-commissioned officers will be selected by the officer commanding the unit to which attached, according to their capabilities.

(12) Dress.

I.—Officers :—

(a) Khaki uniform.—Of the pattern worn in the arm of the service to which attached, i.e., British Cavalry, Royal Field Artillery or British Infantry of the Line (other than Highland, Scottish or Rifle Regiments). Instead of the badges and devices or shoulder titles peculiar to the corps to which attached the letters A. I. F.* will be worn, on the shoulder straps below, and of the same material as the badges of rank. All buttons will be plain full dome.

*Anglo-Indian Force.

(b) Mess dress.—Evening dress (short jacket) will be worn in lieu of the prescribed mess dress. The provision of summer mess dress is optional.

In the event of summer mess dress being provided, it will be of the following description for all branches :—

Mess jacket.—White drill without braid or buttons; roll collar; shoulder straps of the same material with a small button at top (plain full dome) one inside breast pocket. Sleeves cut plain, with pointed cuffs 5 inches high at point and 2½ inches behind. Badges of rank—metal.

Trousers.—White drill, with black leather foot-straps.

Kamarband.—Red silk.

Boots.—Wellington-mounted officers, box spurs.

II.—Rank and file :—

As laid down in Army Department letter No. H. S.-594, dated 17th March 1915, for the arm of the service to which attached, i.e., Cavalry, Royal Field Artillery or Infantry ("other infantry").

Instead of the badges and devices or shoulder titles peculiar to the corps to which attached, the letters A. I. F. will be worn on shoulder straps. Buttons will be of universal pattern.

(13) In the first instance it is the intention to raise the following units:—

2 field troops—cavalry—each 1 Second Lieutenant and 30 non-commissioned officers and men.

1 section-field artillery—1 Second Lieutenant and 70 non-commissioned officers and men.

16 platoons—Infantry—each 1 Second Lieutenant and 60 non-commissioned officers and men.

(14) The cavalry and field artillery will be recruited throughout India. The infantry will be raised, as far as possible, on a territorial basis, as follows :—

4 Platoons from Bengal, Orissa, Bihar and Assam.

2 „ „ Burma.

C

4 Platoons from Madras (including Mysore and Hyderabad).

2 „ „ Bombay, Scinde, and Baluchistan.

2 „ „ United Provinces.

1 „ „ platoon from Punjab, North-West Frontier Province and Kashmir.

1 „ „ Central Provinces, Central India, and Rajputana.

(15) These units will be attached for training as follows :—
Field troops to a British Cavalry Regiment.
Field artillery section—to a battery of Regular Royal Field Artillery.
Infantry platoons to regular battalions of British infantry serving in India.

(16) After completion of training, any of the above units, or any portion of them will be liable to be sent to any British unit of the same arm, regular or territorial, serving in India or on active service.

(17) Attestations will be carried out on Army Form B-2505 (modified) the notice paper being Army Form B-2505A (modified).

Instructions with regard to the modification of these forms will be issued separately.

(18) A candidate in possession of the recommendation referred to in paragraph 6 may present himself at the headquarters of any military station, or to the civil surgeon at a civil station, for preliminary medical examination. If passed fit he will be entitled to a refund of his travelling expenses (at 2nd class fare) on presenting himself at the nearest military centre at which enlistments are carried out, and return fare to his home in the event of rejection.

(19) The final enlistment of recruits will be carried out under the orders of General Officers Commanding Divisions and Areas, at the following centres :—
